Position in Oakland County Treasurer's Office

Are you looking for community service work in a growing field that will make a real difference in your neighbors' lives? Do you have education debt you'd like to pay off? Americorps is searching for a full-time member working on foreclosure prevention and financial empowerment for a year of service at the Oakland County Treasurer's Office.

It's a position that will leave you with a year of experience in government, in work that directly addresses the impact of the housing crisis and keeps Oakland County residents in their homes.

The position, which includes a living allowance, an education award upon completion and health insurance coverage, begins in October.
